Key West's Top 5 Must Try
at Sunset Pier

To Drink...

#1 Rum Runner

So good it was featured by Rachel Ray on her show $40 a Day. Made with 2 shots rum and another shot of dark rum floated on top!

#2 Mojito

Made famous with the help of Ernest Hemingway in Havana in the 1930's in a bar called La Bodeguita Del Medio. Be sure to ask for it with 10 Cane aged sugarcane rum.

#3 Dark 'n' Stormy

Popular through the sailing community, having been brought home by sailors frequenting Bermuda. We make it with Gosling's Black Seal & Fever Tree ginger beer.

#4 Pusser's Painkiller

Almost guaranteed to work.... as long as you keep drinking them, that is.

#5 Liquid Jelly Monkey Luv

Our signature rum punch served in a souvenir Sunset Pier logo carved coconut that's yours to keep.

To Eat...

#1 Lobster BLT

Served on fresh baked Cole's Peace ciabatta bread. Quite possibly the best sandwich in Key West.

#2 Fish Tacos

with avocado salsa, queso fresco and cilantro. 4 in an order, so come hungry.

#3 Ceviche

Fresh ingredients are the key to making the flavors come alive in this coastal cuisine.

#4 Cuban Mix Sandwich

First enjoyed in Key West by Cuban immigrants as early as 1860.

#5 Conch Fritters

It's hard to come to Key West and not have a few of these traditional favorites.
